AN ACT

To liberalize the provisions of Public Law Numbered 484, Seventy-third Congress, to effect uniform provisions in laws administered by the Veterans' Administration, to extend the Employees' Compensation Act with limitations to certain World War Veterans and other persons, and for other purposes.

June 29, 1936.
[H. R. 12869.]
[Public, No. 844.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

World War Veterans.

TITLE I—WORLD WAR WIDOWS AND CHILDREN

Title I—World War Widows and Children.

SECTION 1. That notwithstanding the provisions of Public Law Numbered 484, Seventy-third Congress (U. S. C., 1934 edition, title 38, secs. 503–507), in no event shall the widow, child, or children otherwise entitled to compensation under the provisions of that Act be denied such compensation if the veteran's death resulted from a disease or disability not service-connected, and at the time of the veteran's death he was receiving or entitled to receive compensation, pension, or retirement pay for 30 percentum disability or more presumptively or directly incurred in or aggravated by service in the World War: Provided, That compensation as provided by this section shall not be payable effective prior to the receipt of application therefor in the Veterans' Administration in such form as the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs may prescribe and in no event prior to the date of enactment of this Act.

or the dependents of veterans for service rendered. The rules prescribed by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs shall contain a provision requiring in each claim the filing of a power of attorney in such manner and form as the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs may prescribe. The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is further authorized in his discretion, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to recognize any person for the purpose of a particular claim under the conditions and limitations of this section.

Prosecution of veterans' claims.

SEC. 201. The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is hereby authorized, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to recognize agents and attorneys in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims under statutes administered by the Veterans' Administration. The rules and regulations prescribed by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs may require of such agents and attorneys, before being recognized as representatives of claimants, that they shall show that they are of good moral character and in good repute, possessed of the necessary qualifications to enable them to render such claimants valuable service, and otherwise competent to advise and assist such claimants in the presentation of claims, and the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs may, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, suspend or exclude from further practice before the Veterans' Administration any such agent or attorney shown to be, or to have been, engaged in unlawful, unprofessional, or dishonest practice, or guilty of disreputable conduct or who is incompetent, or who has violated or refused to comply with the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration, or with the laws, regulations, or instructions governing practice before the Veterans' Administration, or who shall in any manner deceive, mislead, or threaten any claimant or prospective claimant by word, circular, letter, or advertisement. The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs is further authorized to determine and pay fees in allowed claims for monetary benefits under statutes administered by the Veterans' Administration to agents and attorneys recognized as provided in this title and to prescribe rules and regulations governing entitlement to and the amount and mode of payment of such fees: Provided, That payment of such fees shall not exceed $10 in any one claim and in all cases fees shall be deducted from the amount of monetary benefits allowed.

Title III—Authority to Issue Subpena, Make Investigations, and Administer Oaths.

SEC. 300. For the purposes of the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration, the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, and those employees to whom the Administrator may delegate such authority, to the extent of the authority so delegated, shall have the power to issue subpenas for and compel the attendance of witnesses within a radius of one hundred miles from the place of hearing, to require the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, to take affidavits, to administer oaths and affirmations, to aid claimants in the preparation and presentation of claims, and to make investigations and examine witnesses upon any matter within the jurisdiction of the Administration. Any person required by such subpena to attend as a witness shall be allowed and paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the district courts of the United States.

Delegation of Administrator's authority.

Fees and mileage allowed witnesses.

SEC. 301. Any such oath, affirmation, affidavit, or examination, when certified under the hand of any such employee by whom it was administered or taken and authenticated by the seal of the Veterans' Administration, may be offered or used in any court of the United States and without further proof of the identity or authority of such employee shall have like force and effect as if administered or taken before a clerk of such court.

Judicial notice of official seal.

SEC. 302. In case of disobedience to any such subpena, the aid of any district court of the United States or the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia may be invoked in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence, and such court within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on may, in case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpena issued to any officer, agent, or employee of any corporation or to any other person, issue an order requiring such corporation or other person to appear or to give evidence touching the matter in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof.

Enforcement of subpena.

Federal payments in lieu of taxes.

SEC. 2. Upon the request of any State or political subdivision thereof, or any other local public taxing unit, in which any such project, described in section 1, has been or will be constructed, the Resettlement Administration is authorized to enter into an agreement, and to consent to the renewal or alteration thereof, with such State or political subdivision thereof, or other local taxing unit, for the payment by the United States of sums in lieu of taxes. Such sums shall be fixed in such agreement and shall be based upon the cost of the public or municipal services to be supplied for the benefit of such project or the persons residing on or occupying such premises, but taking into consideration the benefits to be derived by such State or subdivision or other taxing unit from such project.

Proceeds from operation of projects available for payments and other expenses.

SEC. 3. The receipts derived from the operation of such projects, described in section 1, in addition to the moneys appropriated or allocated for such projects, shall be available for such payments in lieu of taxes and for any other expenditures for operation and maintenance (including insurance) of such projects. To provide for such payments and expenditures, the Resettlement Administration is authorized from time to time to retain out of such receipts such sums as it may estimate to be necessary for such purposes.

Dedication of streets, etc.

SEC. 4. In connection with any such project, described in section 1, the Resettlement Administration, with the approval of the President, is authorized to dedicate land for streets, alleys, and parks, and for any other public use or purpose, and to grant easements.

AN ACT

To provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes.

Government contracts.
Contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment exceeding $10,000; representations to be included.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in any contract made and entered into by any executive department, independent establishment, or other agency or instrumentality of the United States, or by the District of Columbia, or by any corporation all the stock of which is beneficially owned by the United States (all the foregoing being hereinafter designated as agencies of the United States), for the manufacture or furnishing of materials, supplies, articles, and equipment in any amount exceeding $10,000, there shall be included the following representations and stipulations:

Contractor is the manufacturer, etc.

(a) That the contractor is the manufacturer of or a regular dealer in the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment to be manufactured or used in the performance of the contract;

Payment of prevailing minimum wages.

(b) That all persons employed by the contractor in the manufacture or furnishing of the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment used in the performance of the contract will be paid, without subsequent deduction or rebate on any account, not less than the minimum wages as determined by the Secretary of Labor to be the prevailing minimum wages for persons employed on similar work or in the particular or similar industries or groups of industries currently operating in the locality in which the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment are to be manufactured or furnished under said contract;

(c) That no person employed by the contractor in the manufacture or furnishing of the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment used in the performance of the contract shall be permitted to work in excess of eight hours in any one day or in excess of forty hours in any one week; Maximum hours of labor.

(d) That no male person under sixteen years of age and no female person under eighteen years of age and no convict labor will be employed by the contractor in the manufacture or production or furnishing of any of the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment included in such contract; and Child and convict labor.

(e) That no part of such contract will be performed nor will any of the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment to be manufactured or furnished under said contract be manufactured or fabricated in any plants, factories, buildings, or surroundings or under working conditions which are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health and safety of employees engaged in the performance of said contract. Compliance with the safety, sanitary, and factory inspection laws of the State in which the work or part thereof is to be performed shall be prima-facie evidence of compliance with this subsection. Working conditions in factories, etc. Compliance with State safety, sanitary, etc., laws.

SEC. 2. That any breach or violation of any of the representations and stipulations in any contract for the purposes set forth in section 1 hereof shall render the party responsible therefor liable to the United States of America for liquidated damages, in addition to damages for any other breach of such contract, the sum of $10 per day for each male person under sixteen years of age or each female person under eighteen years of age, or each convict laborer knowingly employed in the performance of such contract, and a sum equal to the amount of any deductions, rebates, refunds, or underpayment of wages due to any employee engaged in the performance of such contract; and, in addition, the agency of the United States entering into such contract shall have the right to cancel same and to make open-market purchases or enter into other contracts for the completion of the original contract, charging any additional cost to the original contractor. Any sums of money due to the United States of America by reason of any violation of any of the representations and stipulations of said contract set forth in section 1 hereof may be withheld from any amounts due on any such contracts or may be recovered in suits brought in the name of the United States of America by the Attorney General thereof. All sums withheld or recovered as deductions, rebates, refunds, or underpayments of wages shall be held in a special deposit account and shall be paid, on order of the Secretary of Labor, directly to the employees who have been paid less than minimum rates of pay as set forth in such contracts and on whose account such sums were withheld or recovered: Provided, That no claims by employees for such payments shall be entertained unless made within one year from the date of actual notice to the contractor of the withholding or recovery of such sums by the United States of America. Damages for breach of contract. Additional penalties. Cancelation of contracts. Open-market purchases; charging of additional cost to contractor. Use of sums withheld. Proviso. Filing of claims.

SEC. 3. The Comptroller General is authorized and directed to distribute a list to all agencies of the United States containing the names of persons or firms found by the Secretary of Labor to have breached any of the agreements or representations required by this Distribution to Federal agencies of list of persons, etc., who have breached contracts.

thereof; and shall make findings of fact after notice and hearing, which findings shall be conclusive upon all agencies of the United States, and if supported by the preponderance of the evidence, shall be conclusive in any court of the United States; and the Secretary of Labor or authorized representative shall have the power, and is hereby authorized, to make such decisions, based upon findings of fact, as are deemed to be necessary to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Exceptions in specific cases.

SEC. 6. Upon a written finding by the head of the contracting agency or department that the inclusion in the proposal or contract of the representations or stipulations set forth in section 1 will seriously impair the conduct of Government business, the Secretary of Labor shall make exceptions in specific cases or otherwise when justice or public interest will be served thereby. Upon the joint recommendation of the contracting agency and the contractor, the Secretary of Labor may modify the terms of an existing contract respecting minimum rates of pay and maximum hours of labor as he may find necessary and proper in the public interest or to prevent injustice and undue hardship. The Secretary of Labor may provide reasonable limitations and may make rules and regulations allowing reasonable variations, tolerances, and exemptions to and from any or all provisions of this Act respecting minimum rates of pay and maximum hours of labor or the extent of the application of this Act to contractors, as hereinbefore described. Whenever the Secretary of Labor shall permit an increase in the maximum hours of labor stipulated in the contract, he shall set a rate of pay for any overtime, which rate shall be not less than one and one-half times the basic hourly rate received by any employee affected.

Modification of contracts.

Variations, etc.

Pay for overtime work.

SEC. 7. Whenever used in this Act, the word "person" includes one or more individuals, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, trustees in bankruptcy, or receivers.

[Public, No. 847.]

AN ACT

To amend section 5 of the Act of March 2, 1919, generally known as the "War Minerals Relief Act."

War Minerals Relief Act.

Claimants under, not deprived of benefits for failure to sue, etc.

Vol. 40, p. 1274; Vol. 45, p. 1166.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That no claimant who filed a claim in accordance with the provisions of section 5 of the Act entitled, "An Act to provide relief in cases of contracts connected with prosecution of the war, and for other purposes", approved March 2, 1919, shall be deprived of any of the benefits of said Act as amended by the Act of February 13, 1929, by reason of failure to file suit under said amendment in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, or through abatement of any suit so filed.

Review by Secretary of Interior upon matters of fact and newly presented evidence.

Upon petition to the Secretary of the Interior in such abated suits and in claims wherein no suits were filed under the said amendment, the Secretary is hereby authorized and directed to review all such claims upon matters of fact and any newly presented evidence or facts not before his predecessors and, except where in conflict with the provisions of this Act, in the light of decisions of the courts in similar cases; and, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, as amended, to make awards or additional awards in said claims as he may determine to be just and equitable.

Awards.

Descent of deceased claimant's rights to legal representative.

Descent of rights of corporations ceasing to exist after filing claim.

SEC. 2. The rights of any deceased claimant under section 5 of said Act shall be held and considered to descend to the legal representatives as personal property of such deceased claimant. The rights of any corporation which filed a claim under section 5 of the Act of March 2, 1919, but which ceased to exist at any time after filing such claim, shall be held and considered to descend—

(1) to the persons who at the time such corporation ceased to exist were entitled under the laws of the State of incorporation to share in the assets of such corporation upon the dissolution thereof, or if any such person be dead, or dies after the enactment of this Act but before he receives the benefits of this Act, to his legal representative as personal property; and

(2) to any officer, director, or stockholder of such corporation at the time it ceased to exist as trustee for the persons or legal representatives referred to in clause (1); and such persons or their legal representatives and such officers, directors, and stockholders shall be entitled to the benefits of this Act.

Time limitation.

SEC. 3. This Act shall not authorize payment to be made of any claim not presented to the Secretary of the Interior within six months after its approval.

Approved, June 30, 1936.

AN ACT

July 13, 1936.
[H. R. 8875.]
[Public, No. 849.]

To clarify section 104 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title II, sec. 194).

Congressional investigations.
R. S., sec. 104, p. 18; U. S. C., p. 19.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 104, of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title II, sec. 194) is amended to read as follows:

Witnesses failing to appear to testify, produce papers, etc.
Refusing to answer questions.

"SEC. 104. Whenever a witness summoned as mentioned in section 102 of the Revised Statutes fails to appear to testify or fails to produce any books, papers, records, or documents, as required, or whenever any witness so summoned refuses to answer any question pertinent to the subject under inquiry before either House or any committee or subcommittee of either House of Congress, and the fact of such failure or failures is reported to either House while Congress is in session, or when Congress is not in session, a statement of facts constituting such failure is reported to and filed with the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the House, it shall be the duty of the said President of the Senate or Speaker of the House, as the case may be, to certify, and he shall so certify, the statement of facts aforesaid under the seal of the Senate or House, as the case may be, to the appropriate United States attorney, whose duty it shall be to bring the matter before the grand jury for its action."

Certification of facts to appropriate United States attorney for grand jury action.

Approved, July 13, 1936.

The original of every act printed in this volume from page 2045 to page 2206, inclusive, has the following heading:

SEVENTY-FOURTH CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA;

AT THE FIRST SESSION,

BEGUN AND HELD AT THE CITY OF WASHINGTON ON THURSDAY, THE THIRD DAY OF JANUARY, ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIVE.

The original of every act and joint resolution printed in this volume from page 2207 to page 2373, inclusive, has the following heading:

SEVENTY-FOURTH CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA;

AT THE SECOND SESSION,

BEGUN AND HELD AT THE CITY OF WASHINGTON ON FRIDAY, THE THIRD DAY OF JANUARY, ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX.

All bills and joint resolutions presented to the President of the United States bear the signatures of the Speaker (or of the Speaker pro tempore) of the House of Representatives and of the Vice President and President of the Senate (or of the President of the Senate pro tempore); those signatures accordingly appear on the originals of all acts and joint resolutions.

The signature of the President of the United States appears on the originals of all approved acts and joint resolutions.

The original of every act and joint resolution has endorsed thereon a certificate of origin, signed, as the case may be, by the Clerk of the House of Representatives or by the Secretary of the Senate and reading "I certify that this Act (or Joint Resolution) originated in the House of Representatives (or Senate)." The origin of each act and resolution contained in this volume is indicated in the margin at the beginning of each enactment; thus, for example, H. R. 3373 or H. J. Res. 522 indicates origin in the House of Representatives; and S. 31 or S. J. Res. 169 indicates origin in the Senate.

Osterman, captain, Quartermaster Corps, $17.60; A. J. Tagliabue, first lieutenant, Finance Department, $35.07; and George N. Watson, Major, Finance Department (now retired), $29.25, said amounts being public funds for which they are accountable and which represent amounts due to minor errors in computation of pay and allowances due military personnel, who are no longer in the service of the United States, and which amounts have been disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Major F. J. Baker.

SEC. 2. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit the accounts of F. J. Baker, major, Finance Department, $149.31, of which amount $105.57 represents payments made to three former officers of the National Guard; $37.80 representing payments made to two former Reserve Officers' Training Corps students of the University of Florida and for which efforts to collect from the individual payees for the overpayments have been unsuccessful; and $5.94 paid to an officer of the Army for Pullman accommodations used by him on a change of station under proper orders, but for which the cash receipt necessary to support the voucher covering payment was lost, all of which amounts were disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States in the accounts of Major Baker.

Lieutenant Roy W. Camblin.

SEC. 3. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of Roy W. Camblin, first lieutenant, Air Corps (formerly disbursing officer, Ellington Field, Texas), the amount of $27.46, said amount being public funds for which he is accountable and which represents amounts due to errors in computing ration savings due organizations of the Army which have since been disbanded.

SEC. 4. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Roy W. Camblin, first lieutenant, Air Corps, $107.36, representing an amount erroneously stopped against his pay by the Secretary of War for disallowances appearing in his accounts as disbursing officer at Ellington Field, Texas, in 1921 and 1922, and which disallowances had been cleared by the Comptroller General of the United States under authority of law prior to the collection of the stoppage.

Major F. A. Englehart.

SEC. 5. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit the accounts of F. A. Englehart, major, Ordnance Department, $44.87, public funds for which he is accountable and which represent the proceeds due the United States from a cashier's check for $70 drawn on March 30, 1925, on the First National Bank, Conyers, Georgia, which bank failed between date of receiving check by the Government, April 2, 1925, and date of its presentation for payment, April 17, 1925, $44.87 being the balance outstanding after the affairs of the above-mentioned bank had been liquidated.

Major John B. Harper.

SEC. 6. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of John B. Harper, major, Finance Department, the sum of $80.64, public funds for which he is accountable and which were paid by him to Joseph F. Battley, first lieutenant, Chemical Warfare Service, for mileage performed under War Department orders and which amount was disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States: Provided, That the amount so paid shall not be charged against any moneys otherwise due payee.

Major C. Newton, Junior.

SEC. 7. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of C. Newton, Junior, major, Finance Department, the sum of $100, said amount being public funds for which he is accountable and which represents a payment made to William A. Weaver for services in testifying as an expert witness at a general court martial of an officer, which amount has been disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Captain K. W. Slauson.

SEC. 8. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of K. W. Slauson, captain, Quartermaster Corps, the sum of $22.26, public funds for which he is accountable and which were paid to George L. Dewey, first lieutenant, Infantry, for traveling expenses and disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Lieutenant George L. Dewey.

SEC. 9. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to George L. Dewey, first lieutenant, United States Army, the sum of $160.49, being the amount properly due him for traveling expenses, voucher for which was approved for payment by the General Accounting Office but used as an offset against the disallowances in the accounts of Captain K. W. Slauson, Quartermaster Corps, for a previous payment made Lieutenant Dewey for travel allowance while on duty as a language student in France: Provided, That no charge shall be raised in the accounts of K. W. Slauson, captain, Quartermaster Corps, and E. J. Heller, captain, Quartermaster Corps, on account of this payment.

Proviso. Designated accounts not affected.

Major George N. Watson.

SEC. 10. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of George N. Watson, major, Finance Department, the sum of 53 cents, public funds for which he is accountable and which were paid to the Western Union Telegraph Company for transmission of an official message and which amount was disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States on the grounds that such message could have been sent by naval radio service at reduced cost.

Refunds due disbursing officers.

SEC. 11. Any amounts which otherwise may have been due any of the disbursing officers mentioned herein, or, in the case of deceased officers, may have been due their heirs, for any other purpose, and which amounts or any part thereof have been used as a set-off by the Comptroller General to clear disallowances in said officers' accounts mentioned herein, shall be refunded to such disbursing officer or their heirs: Provided, That any amounts refunded by any of said disbursing officers, or their heirs, to the United States on account of said disallowances, shall also be refunded to such disbursing officers or their heirs: Provided further, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or agents, attorney or attorneys, on account of services rendered in connection with said claim. Application for payment.

SEC. 2. No payment under the provisions of this Act shall be made unless an application therefor is filed with the Comptroller General of the United States by or on behalf of the person entitled to payment within two years after the date of the enactment of this Act. The Comptroller General of the United States shall determine the amount due on any application, and the person entitled thereto under this Act, and shall certify such determination to the Secretary of the Treasury, which determination shall be final. The Comptroller General shall promulgate rules and regulations as to the identity of claimants, the validity of assignments, and all other matters in connection with the determination of the amounts due and the persons to whom such amounts shall be paid under this Act. The amount to be paid under this Act shall be ascertained from the records of the Director General of Railroads, and such records shall be conclusive evidence of the amount of any such loss, the amount paid by the United States with respect thereto, and the amount paid by any insurance company with respect thereto. Such records shall also be conclusive evidence of the person entitled to payment, except that if in any judicial proceeding in which final judgment has been rendered the right of any person to succeed to the rights of the person who suffered the loss by the fire has been determined, such judgment shall be conclusive as to the heir, representative, administrator, executor, successor, or assignee, as the case may be, entitled to payment.

Determination of amount due.

Rules to be prescribed.

Records to be conclusive evidence.

Authorizing the Comptroller General of the United States to settle and adjust the claims of subcontractors and materialmen for material and labor furnished in the construction of a post-office and courthouse building at Rutland, Vermont.

Rutland, Vt., public building.
Settlement of claims for material and labor authorized.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to settle and adjust on a pro rata basis in an amount not exceeding the unpaid balance, the claims of subcontractors and materialmen who furnished material and labor in the construction of a post-office and courthouse building at Rutland, Vermont, which work was completed by the National Surety Company, as surety on the performance bond before said surety company was placed in the hands of a rehabilitator appointed by the Insurance Department of the State of New York, and after the United States had terminated the right of the Brooklyn and Queens Screen Manufacturing Company, Incorporated, to proceed under contract number T1SA–1755, dated June 25, 1931.

Payment.

The Comptroller General of the United States shall pay the money without regard to any priorities the Government may claim against the National Surety Company in other cases, and when the money shall so have been paid it shall be set aside for subcontractors, materialmen, and laborers who did the work or supplied material for this building with a view to paying their claims, if any: Provided, That no payment shall be made until sixty days from the passage of this Act or until personal notice has been given all claimants for the filing of such claims.

Proviso.
Time of payment.

Payments charged against National Surety Company.

And there is hereby made available from such appropriations not to exceed $19,138.18 for this purpose; payments so made shall be charged to the National Surety Company in the adjustment of the accounts between said company and the United States: Provided, That before any allowance is made pursuant to the terms of this Act, the liquidator of the National Surety Company shall file with the Comptroller General written consent thereto.

Proviso.

AN ACT

For the relief of the Federal Enameling and Stamping Company.

Federal Enameling and Stamping Company.
Preamble.

Whereas Federal Enameling and Stamping Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, was the owner of a plant and property, located in McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania, the temporary use and occupancy whereof was taken for the public use by the United States on September 13, 1918, under Army requisition numbered 738 B/C, ordinance numbered 609; and

Whereas the War Department Board of Appraisers, by its award numbered 634, under date of February 18, 1919, awarded to the said Federal Enameling and Stamping Company, in just compensation for the use and occupancy of said plant and property and the damages arising out of the taking thereof as aforesaid, the sum of $12,847.19; and

Whereas said Federal Enameling and Stamping Company, under date of September 13, 1919, certified that said award was not satisfactory and did not accept the same in full payment of the claim arising out of the taking of said property by virtue of said requisition, and demanded payment of 75 per centum thereof as provided in section 12 of an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the national security and defense, and so forth", known as the Food and Fuel Act, approved August 10, 1917, and reserved the right to prosecute any further claim it might have against the United States arising out of the taking of its said property; and

Vol. 40, p. 276.

Whereas in compliance with said demand the Government of the United States paid to said Federal Enameling and Stamping Company on April 2, 1919, the sum of $9,635.39 and retained the balance of said award, to wit, the sum of $3,211.80; and

Whereas said Federal Enameling and Stamping Company did not prosecute any further claim against the United States, and the United States has not paid the aforesaid balance of $3,211.80: Therefore Payment of balance due.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $3,211.80 to the Federal Enameling and Stamping Company, the balance due under award numbered 634 by the War Department Board of Appraisers, which award was made in order to compensate said Federal Enameling and Stamping Company for the use of its property by the United States and damages arising therefrom.

The undersigned, plenipotentiaries of the governments listed above, having met in conference at Madrid, have, in common agreement and subject to ratification, concluded the following Convention:

CHAPTER I

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONING OF THE UNION

Organization, functions, etc.

ARTICLE 1

Constitution of the Union

Constitution. Vol. 45, p. 2760.

§ 1. The countries, parties to the present Convention, form the International Telecommunication Union which shall replace the Telegraph Union and which shall be governed by the following provisions.

§ 2. Les termes employés dans la présente Convention sont définis dans l'annexe à ce document.

ARTICLE 2.

Règlements.

§ 1. Les dispositions de la présente Convention sont complétées par les Règlements, savoir:

le Règlement télégraphique, le Règlement téléphonique, les Règlements des radiocommunications (Règlement général et Règlement additionnel), qui ne lient que les gouvernements contractants qui se sont engagés à les appliquer, et seulement vis-à-vis des gouvernements qui ont pris le même engagement.

§ 2. Seuls les signataires de la Convention ou les adhérents à cet acte sont admis à signer les Règlements ou à y adhérer. La signature de l'un, au moins, des Règlements est obligatoire pour les signataires de la Convention. De même, l'adhésion à l'un, au moins, des Règlements est obligatoire pour les adhérents à la Convention. Toutefois, le Règlement additionnel des radiocommunications ne peut pas faire l'objet de la signature ou de l'adhésion sans que la signature ou l'adhésion ait été donnée au Règlement général des radiocommunications.

§ 3. Les prescriptions de la présente Convention n'engagent les gouvernements contractants que pour les services régis par les Règlements auxquels ces gouvernements sont Parties.

ARTICLE 3.

Adhésion des gouvernements à la Convention.

§ 1. Le gouvernement d'un pays, au nom duquel la présente Convention n'a pas été signée, peut y adhérer en tout temps. Cette adhésion doit porter sur un au moins des Règlements annexés, sous réserve de l'application du § 2 de l'article 2 ci-dessus.

§ 2. L'acte d'adhésion d'un gouvernement sera déposé dans les archives du gouvernement qui a accueilli la conférence de plénipotentiaires ayant arrêté la présente Convention. Le gouvernement qui a reçu en dépôt l'acte d'adhésion en donne connaissance, par la voie diplomatique, à tous les autres gouvernements contractants.

§ 3. L'adhésion emporte de plein droit toutes les obligations et tous les avantages stipulés par la présente Convention; en outre, elle entraîne les obligations et avantages stipulés par les seuls Règlements que les gouvernements adhérents s'engagent à appliquer.

§ 2. The terms used in this Convention are defined in the annex to the present document. Terms. Post, p. 2441.

ARTICLE 2

Regulations

§ 1. The provisions of the present Convention shall be completed by the following Regulations: Regulations.

the Telegraph Regulations,
the Telephone Regulations,
the Radio Regulations (General Regulations and Additional Regulations[1]), which shall bind only the contracting governments which have undertaken to apply them, and solely as regards governments which have taken the same obligation. Governments bound.

§ 2. Only the signatories to the Convention or the adherents to this document shall be permitted to sign the Regulations or to adhere thereto. The signing of at least one of the sets of Regulations shall be obligatory upon the signatories of the Convention. Similarly, adherence to at least one of the sets of Regulations shall be obligatory upon the adherents to the Convention. However, the Additional Radio Regulations may not be the subject of signature or adherence except when the General Radio Regulations have been signed or adhered to. Post, p. 2397. Additional regulations not included.

§ 3. The provisions of the present Convention shall bind the contracting governments only with respect to the services governed by the Regulations to which these governments are parties. Scope of Convention.

ARTICLE 3

Adherence of Governments to the Convention

§ 1. The government of a country, in the name of which the present Convention has not been signed, may adhere to it at any time. Such adherence must cover at least one of the sets of annexed Regulations, subject to the application of § 2 of article 2 above. Adherence of Governments to Convention.

§ 2. The act of adherence of a government shall be deposited in the archives of the government which received the conference of plenipotentiaries that has drawn up the present Convention. The government with which the act of adherence has been deposited shall communicate it to all the other contracting governments through diplomatic channels.

§ 3. Adherence shall carry with it as a matter of right, all the obligations and all the advantages stipulated by the present Convention; it shall, in addition, entail the obligations and advantages stipulated by the particular Regulations which the adhering governments undertake to apply.

[1] The additional radio regulations were not signed on the part of the United States.

ARTICLE 4.

Adhésion des gouvernements aux Règlements.

Le gouvernement d'un pays signataire ou adhérent à la présente Convention peut adhérer en tout temps au Règlement ou aux Règlements auxquels il ne s'est pas engagé, en tenant compte des dispositions du § 2 de l'article 2. Cette adhésion est notifiée au Bureau de l'Union, lequel en donne connaissance aux autres gouvernements intéressés.

ARTICLE 5.

Adhésion à la Convention et aux Règlements des colonies, protectorats, territoires d'outre-mer ou territoires sous souveraineté, autorité ou mandat des gouvernements contractants.

§ 1. Tout gouvernement contractant peut déclarer, soit au moment de sa signature, de sa ratification ou de son adhésion, soit après, que son acceptation de la présente Convention est valable pour l'ensemble ou un groupe ou un seul de ses colonies, protectorats, territoires d'outre-mer ou territoires sous souveraineté, autorité ou mandat.

§ 2. L'ensemble ou un groupe ou un seul de ces colonies, protectorats, territoires d'outre-mer ou territoires sous souveraineté, autorité ou mandat peut respectivement faire l'objet, à toute époque, d'une adhésion distincte.

§ 3. La présente Convention ne s'applique pas aux colonies, protectorats, territoires d'outre-mer ou territoires sous souveraineté, autorité ou mandat d'un gouvernement contractant, à moins d'une déclaration à cet effet faite en vertu du § 1 du présent article ou d'une adhésion distincte faite en vertu du § 2 ci-dessus.

§ 4. Les déclarations d'adhésion faites en vertu des §§ 1 et 2 du présent article seront communiquées, par la voie diplomatique, au gouvernement du pays sur le territoire duquel aura été tenue la conférence de plénipotentiaires à laquelle la présente Convention a été arrêtée, et une copie en sera transmise par ce gouvernement à chacun des autres gouvernements contractants.

§ 5. Les dispositions des §§ 1 et 3 du présent article s'appliquent aussi soit pour l'acceptation d'un ou de plusieurs Règlements, soit pour l'adhésion à un ou à plusieurs Règlements, en tenant compte des prescriptions du § 2 de l'article 2. Cette acceptation ou cette adhésion est notifiée en conformité des dispositions de l'article 4.

§ 6. Les dispositions des paragraphes précédents ne s'appliquent pas aux colonies, protectorats, territoires d'outre-mer ou territoires sous souveraineté, autorité ou mandat qui figurent dans le préambule de la présente Convention.

ARTICLE 6.

Ratification de la Convention.

§ 1. La présente Convention devra être ratifiée par les gouvernements signataires et les ratifications en seront déposées, par la voie diplomatique, dans le plus bref délai possible, aux archives du gouvernement du pays qui a accueilli la conférence de plénipotentiaires

ARTICLE 4

Adherence of Governments to the Regulations

Adherence by Governments to Regulations.

The government of a country signatory or adherent to the present Convention may at any time adhere to one or more of the sets of Regulations which it has not undertaken to observe, taking into account the provisions of article 2, § 2. Such adherence shall be notified to the Bureau of the Union which shall inform the other governments concerned thereof.

ARTICLE 5

Adherence to the Convention and to the Regulations by Colonies, Protectorates, Overseas Territories, or Territories under Sovereignty, Authority, or Mandate of the Contracting Governments

By Colonies, etc.

§ 1. Any contracting government may, at the time of its signature, its ratification, its adherence, or later, declare that its acceptance of the present Convention is valid for the whole or a group or a single one of its colonies, protectorates, overseas territories, or territories under sovereignty, authority, or mandate.

§ 2. The whole or a group or a single one of these colonies, protectorates, overseas territories, or territories under sovereignty, authority, or mandate may, respectively, at any time, be the subject of a separate adherence.

§ 3. The present Convention shall not apply to colonies, protectorates, overseas territories, or territories under sovereignty, authority, or mandate of a contracting government, unless statement to this effect is made by virtue of § 1 of the present article, or a separate adherence is made by virtue of § 2 above.

§ 4. The declarations of adherence, made by virtue of § 1 and § 2 of this article, shall be communicated through diplomatic channels to the government of the country on the territory of which was held the conference of plenipotentiaries, at which the present Convention was drawn up, and a copy thereof shall be transmitted by this government to each of the other contracting governments.

§ 5. The provisions of §§ 1 and 3 of this article shall also apply either to the acceptance of one or more of the sets of Regulations, or to the adherence to one or more of the sets of Regulations, within the terms of the provisions contained in article 2, § 2. Such acceptance or adherence shall be notified in conformity with the provisions of article 4.

Ante, p. 2393.

§ 6. The provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall not apply to the colonies, protectorates, overseas territories, or territories under sovereignty, authority, or mandate which appear in the preamble of the present Convention.

ARTICLE 6

Ratification of the Convention

Ratification.

§ 1. The present Convention must be ratified by the signatory governments and the ratifications thereof must be deposited, as soon as possible, through diplomatic channels, in the archives of the government of the country which received the conference of plenipotentiaries ayant arrêté la présente Convention et qui notifiera aux autres gouvernements signataires et adhérents, par la voie diplomatique, les ratifications au fur et à mesure de leur réception.

§ 2. Dans le cas où un ou plusieurs des gouvernements signataires ne ratifieraient pas la Convention, celle-ci n'en sera pas moins valable pour les gouvernements qui l'auront ratifiée.

ARTICLE 7.

Approbation des Règlements.

§ 1. Les gouvernements doivent se prononcer dans le plus bref délai possible au sujet de l'approbation des Règlements arrêtés en conférence. Cette approbation est notifiée au Bureau de l'Union qui en fait part aux membres de l'Union.

§ 2. Dans le cas où un ou plusieurs des gouvernements intéressés ne notifieraient pas cette approbation, les nouvelles dispositions réglementaires n'en seront pas moins valables pour les gouvernements qui les auront approuvées.

ARTICLE 8.

Abrogation des Conventions et des Règlements antérieurs à la présente Convention.

La présente Convention et les Règlements y annexés abrogent et remplacent, dans les relations entre les gouvernements contractants, les Conventions télégraphiques internationales de Paris (1865), de Vienne (1868), de Rome (1872) et de St-Pétersbourg (1875) et les Règlements y annexés, ainsi que les Conventions radiotélégraphiques internationales de Berlin (1906), de Londres (1912) et de Washington (1927) et les Règlements y annexés.

ARTICLE 9.

Exécution de la Convention et des Règlements.

§ 1. Les gouvernements contractants s'engagent à appliquer les dispositions de la présente Convention et des Règlements acceptés par eux dans tous les bureaux et dans toutes les stations de télécommunications établis ou exploités par leurs soins et qui sont ouverts au service international de la correspondance publique, au service de la radiodiffusion ou aux services spéciaux régis par les Règlements.

§ 2. Ils s'engagent, en outre, à prendre les mesures nécessaires pour imposer l'observation des dispositions de la présente Convention et des Règlements qu'ils acceptent, aux exploitations privées reconnues par eux et aux autres exploitations dûment autorisées à l'établissement et à l'exploitation des télécommunications du service international ouvertes ou non ouvertes à la correspondance publique.

ARTICLE 10.

Dénonciation de la Convention par les gouvernements.

§ 1. Chaque gouvernement contractant a le droit de dénoncer la présente Convention par une notification adressée, par la voie diplomatique, au gouvernement du pays dans lequel a siégé la conférence that has drawn up the present Convention; this same government shall, through diplomatic channels, notify the other signatory and adhering governments of the ratifications, as soon as they are received.

§ 2. In case one or more of the signatory governments would not ratify the Convention, the latter shall none the less be valid for the governments which shall have ratified it.

ARTICLE 7

Approval of the Regulations

Approval of regulations.

§ 1. The governments must, as soon as possible, submit their decision concerning the approval of the Regulations drawn up by the Conference. This approval shall be reported to the Bureau of the Union which shall inform the members of the Union accordingly.

§ 2. In case one or several of the governments concerned would not report such an approval, the new regulatory provisions shall none the less be valid for the governments which shall have approved them.

ARTICLE 8

Abrogation of Conventions and of Regulations Prior to the Present Convention

Abrogation of prior Conventions and Regulations.

The present Convention and the Regulations annexed thereto shall abrogate and replace, in the relations between the contracting governments, the International Telegraph Conventions of Paris (1865), Vienna (1868), Rome (1872), and St. Petersburg (1875), and the Regulations annexed thereto, as well as the International Radiotelegraph Conventions of Berlin (1906), London (1912), and Washington (1927), and the Regulations annexed thereto.

Vol. 37, p. 1565; Vol. 38, p. 1672; Vol. 45, p. 2760.

ARTICLE 9

Execution of the Convention and of the Regulations

Execution of Convention and of Regulations.

§ 1. The contracting governments undertake to apply the provisions of the present Convention and of the Regulations accepted by them, in all the offices and in all the telecommunication stations established or operated by them, and which are open to the international service of public correspondence, to the broadcasting service, or to the special services governed by the Regulations.

§ 2. Moreover, they agree to take the steps necessary to enforce the provisions of the present Convention and of the Regulations which they accept, upon the private operating agencies recognized by them and upon the other operating agencies duly authorized to establish and operate telecommunications of the international service whether or not open to public correspondence.

ARTICLE 10

Denunciation of the Convention by the Governments

Denunciation by Governments of Convention.

§ 1. Each contracting government shall have the right to denounce the present Convention by a notification, addressed, through diplomatic channels, to the government of the country in which was held de plénipotentiaires qui a arrêté la présente Convention et annoncée ensuite par ce gouvernement, également par la voie diplomatique, à tous les autres gouvernements contractants.

§ 2. Cette dénonciation produit son effet à l'expiration du délai d'une année à partir du jour de la réception de sa notification par le gouvernement du pays où a siégé la dernière conférence de plénipotentiaires. Cet effet ne vise que l'auteur de la dénonciation; pour les autres gouvernements contractants, la Convention reste en vigueur.

ARTICLE 11.

Dénonciation des Règlements par les gouvernements.

§ 1. Chaque gouvernement a le droit de mettre fin à l'engagement qu'il a pris d'exécuter un Règlement, en notifiant sa décision au Bureau de l'Union, lequel en donne connaissance aux autres gouvernements intéressés. Cette notification produit son effet à l'expiration du délai d'une année à partir du jour de sa réception par le Bureau de l'Union. Cet effet ne vise que l'auteur de la dénonciation; pour les autres gouvernements, le Règlement visé reste en vigueur.

§ 2. Les dispositions du § 1 ci-dessus ne suppriment pas l'obligation pour les gouvernements contractants d'exécuter au moins l'un des Règlements, visée par l'article 2 de la présente Convention, et compte tenu de la réserve mentionnée au § 2 dudit article.

ARTICLE 12.

Dénonciation de la Convention et des Règlements par les colonies, protectorats, territoires d'outre-mer ou territoires sous souveraineté, autorité ou mandat des gouvernements contractants.

§ 1. L'application de la présente Convention à un territoire, faite en vertu des prescriptions du § 1 ou du § 2 de l'article 5, peut prendre fin à toute époque.

§ 2. Les déclarations de dénonciation prévues au § 1 ci-dessus sont notifiées et annoncées dans les conditions fixées au § 1 de l'article 10; elles produisent leur effet d'après les dispositions du § 2 du même article.

§ 3. L'application d'un ou de plusieurs Règlements à un territoire, faite en vertu des dispositions du § 5 de l'article 5, peut prendre fin à toute époque.

§ 4. Les déclarations de dénonciation prévues au § 3 ci-dessus sont notifiées et annoncées selon les prescriptions du § 1 de l'article 11 et produisent leur effet dans les conditions fixées audit paragraphe.

ARTICLE 13.

Arrangements particuliers.

Les gouvernements contractants se réservent, pour eux-mêmes, pour les exploitations privées reconnues par eux et pour d'autres exploitations dûment autorisées à cet effet, la faculté de conclure the conference of plenipotentiaries that has drawn up the present Convention, and announced by these governments to all the other contracting governments, likewise through diplomatic channels.

§ 2. This denunciation shall take effect at the expiration of the period of one year, beginning with the day on which the notification was received by the government of the country in which the last conference of plenipotentiaries was held. This effect shall apply only to the author of the denunciation; the Convention shall remain in force for the other contracting governments.

ARTICLE 11

Denunciation of the Regulations by the Governments

Of Regulations.

§ 1. Each government shall have the right to terminate the obligation which it has undertaken to apply one of the sets of Regulations, by notifying its decision to the Bureau of the Union which shall inform thereof the other governments concerned. Such notification shall take effect at the expiration of the period of one year, beginning with the day on which it was received by the Bureau of the Union. This effect shall apply only to the author of the denunciation; the Regulations in question shall remain in force for the other governments.

§ 2. The provision of § 1 above shall not annul the obligation for the contracting governments to enforce at least one of the sets of Regulations, covered by article 2 of this Convention, taking into account the reservation contained in § 2 of the said article.

ARTICLE 12

Denunciation of the Convention and of the Regulations by Colonies, Protectorates, Overseas Territories, or Territories under Sovereignty, Authority, or Mandate of the Contracting Governments

By Colonies of Convention and Regulations.

§ 1. The application of the present Convention to a territory, by virtue of the provisions of § 1 or of § 2 of article 5, may terminate at any time.

§ 2. The declarations of denunciation provided for in § 1 above shall be notified and announced according to the conditions stated in § 1 of article 10; they shall take effect according to the provisions of § 2 of the latter article.

§ 3. The application of one or more of the sets of Regulations to a territory, by virtue of the provisions of § 5 of article 5, may terminate at any time.

§ 4. The declarations of denunciation provided for in § 3 above shall be notified and announced in accordance with the provisions of § 1 of article 11 and shall take effect under the conditions set forth in the said paragraph.

ARTICLE 13

Special Arrangements

Special arrangements.

The contracting governments reserve the right, for themselves, for the private operating agencies recognized by them, and for other operating agencies duly authorized to that effect, to conclude special des arrangements particuliers sur les points du service qui n'intéressent pas la généralité des gouvernements. Toutefois, ces arrangements devront rester dans les limites de la Convention et des Règlements y annexés, pour ce qui concerne les brouillages que leur mise à exécution serait susceptible de produire dans les services des autres pays.

ARTICLE 14.

Relations avec des Etats non contractants.

§ 1. Chacun des gouvernements contractants se réserve, pour lui et pour les exploitations privées reconnues par lui, la faculté de fixer les conditions dans lesquelles il admet les télécommunications échangées avec un pays qui n'a pas adhéré à la présente Convention ou au Règlement dans lequel sont comprises les dispositions relatives aux télécommunications en cause.

§ 2. Si une télécommunication originaire d'un pays non adhérent est acceptée par un pays adhérent, elle doit être transmise, et, pour autant qu'elle emprunte les voies d'un pays adhérent à la Convention et aux Règlements respectifs, les dispositions obligatoires de la Convention et des Règlements en question ainsi que les taxes normales lui sont appliquées.

ARTICLE 15.

Arbitrage.

§ 1. En cas de désaccord entre deux ou plusieurs gouvernements contractants relativement à l'exécution soit de la présente Convention, soit des Règlements prévus à l'article 2, le différend, s'il n'est réglé par la voie diplomatique, est soumis à un jugement arbitral à la demande d'un quelconque des gouvernements en désaccord.

§ 2. A moins que les Parties en désaccord ne s'entendent pour faire usage d'une procédure déjà établie par des traités conclus entre elles pour le règlement des conflits internationaux, ou de celle prévue au § 7 du présent article, il sera procédé comme il suit à la désignation des arbitres:

§ 3. (1) Les Parties décident, après entente réciproque, si l'arbitrage doit être confié à des personnes ou à des gouvernements ou administrations; à défaut d'entente, il est recouru à des gouvernements.

(2) Dans le cas où l'arbitrage doit être confié à des personnes, les arbitres ne doivent être de la nationalité d'aucune des Parties intéressées dans le différend.

(3) Dans le cas où l'arbitrage doit être confié à des gouvernements ou administrations, ceux-ci doivent être choisis parmi les Parties adhérentes à l'accord dont l'application a provoqué le différend.

§ 4. La Partie qui fait appel à l'arbitrage est considérée comme Partie demanderesse. Elle désigne un arbitre et le notifie à la partie adverse. La Partie défenderesse doit alors nommer un deuxième arbitre, dans un délai de deux mois à partir de la réception de la notification de la demanderesse.

arrangements on service matters which do not concern the governments in general. However, such arrangements must remain within the terms of the Convention and of the Regulations annexed thereto, as regards interference which their application might be likely to cause with the services of other countries.

ARTICLE 14

Relations with Noncontracting Governments

Relations with noncontracting governments.

§ 1. Each of the contracting governments reserves the right, for itself and for the private operating agencies which it recognizes, to determine the conditions under which it will admit telecommunications exchanged with a country which has not adhered to the present Convention or to the Regulations which contain the provisions relative to the telecommunications involved.

§ 2. If a telecommunication originating in a nonadhering country is accepted by an adhering country, it must be transmitted and, so far as it uses the channels of a country adhering to the Convention and to the respective Regulations, the mandatory provisions of the Convention and of the Regulations in question, as well as the normal rates, shall be applicable to it.

ARTICLE 15

Arbitration

Arbitration.
Ante, p. 2394.

§ 1. In case of disagreement between two or more contracting governments concerning the execution of either the present Convention or the Regulations contemplated in article 2, the dispute, if it is not settled through diplomatic channels, shall be submitted to arbitration at the request of any one of the governments in disagreement.

§ 2. Unless the parties in disagreement agree to adopt a procedure already established by treaties concluded between them for the settlement of international disputes, or the procedure provided for in § 7 of this article, arbitrators shall be appointed in the following manner:

§ 3. (1) The parties shall decide, after mutual agreement, whether the arbitration is to be entrusted to individuals or to governments or administrations; failing an agreement on this matter, governments shall be resorted to.

(2) In case the arbitration is to be entrusted to individuals, the arbitrators must not be of the same nationality as any one of the parties concerned in the dispute.

(3) In case the arbitration is to be entrusted to governments or administrations, the latter must be chosen from among the parties adhering to the agreement, the application of which caused the dispute.

§ 4. The party appealing to arbitration shall be considered as the plaintiff. This party shall designate an arbitrator and notify the opposing party thereof. The defendant must then appoint a second arbitrator, within two months after the receipt of plaintiff's notification.

§ 5. S'il s'agit de plus de deux Parties, chaque groupe de demanderesses ou de défenderesses procède à la nomination d'un arbitre en observant le procédé indiqué au § 4.

§ 6. Les deux arbitres ainsi nommés s'entendent pour désigner un surarbitre qui, si les arbitres sont des personnes et non pas des gouvernements ou administrations, ne soit de la nationalité d'aucun d'eux et d'aucune des Parties. A défaut pour les arbitres de s'entendre sur le choix du surarbitre, chaque arbitre propose un surarbitre désintéressé dans le différend. Il est ensuite tiré au sort entre les surarbitres proposés. Ce tirage au sort est effectué par le Bureau de l'Union.

§ 7. Enfin, les Parties en désaccord ont la faculté de faire juger leur différend par un seul arbitre. Dans ce cas, ou bien elles s'entendent sur le choix de l'arbitre, ou bien celui-ci est désigné conformément à la méthode indiquée au § 6.

§ 8. Les arbitres arrêtent librement la procédure à suivre.

§ 9. Chaque Partie supporte les dépenses que lui occasionne l'instruction du différend. Les frais d'arbitrage sont répartis de façon égale entre les Parties en cause.

ARTICLE 16.

Comités consultatifs internationaux.

§ 1. Des comités consultatifs peuvent être institués en vue d'étudier des questions relatives aux services des télécommunications.

§ 2. Le nombre, la composition, les attributions et le fonctionnement de ces comités sont définis dans les Règlements annexés à la présente Convention.

ARTICLE 17.

Bureau de l'Union.

§ 1. Un office central, dénommé Bureau de l'Union internationale des télécommunications, fonctionne dans les conditions fixées ci-après:

§ 2. (1) Outre les travaux et opérations prévus par divers autres articles de la Convention et des Règlements, le Bureau de l'Union est chargé:

a) des travaux préparatoires des conférences et des travaux consécutifs à ces conférences, auxquelles il est représenté avec voix consultative;

b) d'assurer, d'accord avec l'administration organisatrice intéressée, le secrétariat des conférences de l'Union, de même que, lorsqu'il en est prié ou que les Règlements annexés à la présente Convention en disposent ainsi, le secrétariat des réunions des comités institués par l'Union ou placés sous l'égide de celle-ci;

c) de procéder aux publications dont l'utilité générale viendrait à se révéler entre deux conférences.

§ 5. If more than two parties are involved, each group of plaintiffs or of defendants shall appoint an arbitrator, observing the same procedure as in § 4.

§ 6. The two arbitrators thus appointed shall agree in designating an umpire who, if the arbitrators are individuals and not governments or administrations, must not be of the same nationality as either of them or either of the parties involved. Failing an agreement of the arbitrators as to the choice of the umpire, each arbitrator shall propose an umpire in no way concerned in the dispute. Lots shall then be drawn between the umpires proposed. The drawing of lots shall be done by the Bureau of the Union.

§ 7. Finally, the parties in dispute shall have the right to have their disagreement settled by a single arbitrator. In this case, either they shall agree on the choice of the arbitrator, or the latter shall be designated in conformity with the method indicated in § 6.

§ 8. The arbitrators shall be free to decide on the procedure to be followed.

§ 9. Each party shall bear the expenses it shall have incurred in the investigation of the dispute. The cost of the arbitration shall be apportioned equally among the parties involved.

ARTICLE 16

International Consulting Committees

International Consulting Committees.

§ 1. Consulting committees may be formed for the purpose of studying questions relating to the telecommunication services.

§ 2. The number, composition, duties, and functioning of these committees are defined in the Regulations annexed to the present Convention.

ARTICLE 17

Bureau of the Union

International Bureau. Functions, etc.

§ 1. A central office, called the Bureau of the International Telecommunication Union, shall function under the conditions stated hereinafter:

§ 2. (1) In addition to the work and operations provided for by the various other articles of the Convention and of the Regulations, the Bureau of the Union shall be charged with:

(a) work preparatory to and following conferences, in which it shall be represented in an advisory capacity;

(b) providing, in cooperation with the organizing administration involved, the secretariat of conferences of the Union, as well as, when so requested or when so provided for by the Regulations annexed to the present Convention, the secretariat of meetings of committees appointed by the Union or placed under the auspices of the latter;

(c) issuing such publications as will be found generally useful between two conferences.

(2) Il publie périodiquement, à l'aide des documents qui sont mis à sa disposition et des renseignements qu'il peut recueillir, un journal d'information et de documentation concernant les télécommunications.

(3) Il doit, d'ailleurs, se tenir en tout temps à la disposition des gouvernements contractants pour leur fournir, sur les questions qui intéressent les télécommunications internationales, les avis et les renseignements dont ils pourraient avoir besoin, et qu'il serait mieux en mesure que ces gouvernements de posséder ou de se procurer.

(4) Il fait, sur sa gestion, un rapport annuel qui est communiqué à tous les membres de l'Union. Le compte de gestion est soumis à l'examen et à l'appréciation des conférences de plénipotentiaires ou administratives, prévues par l'article 18 de la présente Convention.

§ 3. (1) Les frais communs du Bureau de l'Union ne doivent pas dépasser, par année, les sommes fixées dans les Règlements annexés à la présente Convention. Ces frais communs ne comprennent pas:

a) les frais afférents aux travaux des conférences de plénipotentiaires ou administratives,

b) les frais afférents aux travaux de comités régulièrement créés.

(2) Les frais afférents aux conférences de plénipotentiaires et administratives sont supportés par tous les gouvernements, qui y prennent part proportionnellement à la contribution qu'ils payent pour le fonctionnement du Bureau de l'Union, suivant les dispositions de l'alinéa (3) ci-après.

Les frais afférents aux réunions des comités régulièrement créés sont supportés suivant les dispositions des Règlements annexés à la présente Convention.

(3) Les recettes et les dépenses du Bureau de l'Union doivent faire l'objet de deux comptes distincts, l'un pour les services télégraphique et téléphonique, l'autre pour le service des radiocommunications. Les frais afférents à chacune de ces deux divisions sont supportés par les gouvernements adhérents aux Règlements correspondants. Pour la répartition de ces frais, les gouvernements adhérents sont divisés en six classes, contribuant chacun dans la proportion d'un certain nombre d'unités, savoir:

1re classe: 25 unités,
2e classe: 20 unités,
3e classe: 15 unités,
4e classe: 10 unités,
5e classe: 5 unités,
6e classe: 3 unités.

(4) Chaque gouvernement fait connaître au Bureau de l'Union, soit directement, soit par l'intermédiaire de son administration, dans quelle classe son pays doit être rangé. Cette classification est communiquée aux membres de l'Union.

(2) On the basis of the documents put at its disposal and of the information which it may gather, it shall publish periodically a journal of information and documentation concerning telecommunications.

(3) It must also, at all times, hold itself at the disposal of the contracting governments to furnish them with such opinions and information as they may need on questions concerning international telecommunications, and which it is in a better position to have or to obtain than these governments.

(4) It shall prepare an annual report on its activities, which shall be communicated to all members of the Union. The operating account shall be submitted, for examination and approval, to the plenipotentiary or administrative conferences provided for in article 18 of the present Convention. Annual reports.

§ 3. (1) The general expenses of the Bureau of the Union must not exceed, per year, the amounts specified in the Regulations annexed to the present Convention. These general expenses shall not include: Expenses of Bureau.

(a) the expenses pertaining to the work of plenipotentiary or administrative conferences,

(b) the expenses pertaining to the work of duly created committees.

(2) The expenses pertaining to the plenipotentiary and administrative conferences shall be borne by all the governments participating therein, in proportion to the contribution which they pay for the operation of the Bureau of the Union, in accordance with the provisions of the following subparagraph (3). Conferences.

The expenses pertaining to the meetings of the committees regularly created shall be borne in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations annexed to the present Convention.

(3) The receipts and expenses of the Bureau of the Union must be carried in two separate accounts, one for the telegraph and telephone services, the other for the radio service. The expenses pertaining to each of these two divisions shall be borne by the governments adhering to the corresponding Regulations. For the apportioning of these expenses, the adhering governments shall be divided into six classes, each contributing at the rate of a certain number of units, namely: Keeping accounts. Apportionment of expenses.

1st class: 25 units
2d class: 20 units
3d class: 15 units
4th class: 10 units
5th class: 5 units
6th class: 3 units

(4) Each government shall inform the Bureau of the Union, directly or through its administration, of the class in which its country is to be placed. This classification shall be communicated to the members of the Union.

(5) Les sommes avancées par le gouvernement qui contrôle le Bureau de l'Union doivent être remboursées, par les gouvernements débiteurs, dans le plus bref délai et, au plus tard, à l'expiration du quatrième mois qui suit le mois durant lequel le compte a été envoyé. Passé ce délai, les sommes dues sont productives d'intérêts, au profit du gouvernement créditeur, à raison de six pour cent (6%) l'an, à compter du jour de l'expiration du délai susmentionné.

§ 4. Le Bureau de l'Union est placé sous la haute surveillance du Gouvernement de la Confédération suisse, qui en règle l'organisation, en contrôle les finances, fait les avances nécessaires et vérifie le compte annuel.

CHAPITRE II.

CONFÉRENCES.

Article 18.

Conférences de plénipotentiaires et conférences administratives.

§ 1. Les prescriptions de la présente Convention sont revisables par des conférences de plénipotentiaires des gouvernements contractants.

§ 2. Il est procédé à la revision de la Convention lorsqu'il en a été ainsi décidé par une précédente conférence de plénipotentiaires, ou lorsque vingt gouvernements contractants au moins en ont manifesté le désir au gouvernement du pays où siège le Bureau de l'Union.

§ 3. Les prescriptions des Règlements annexés à la présente Convention sont revisables par des conférences administratives de délégués des gouvernements contractants qui ont approuvé les Règlements soumis à revision, chaque conférence fixant elle-même le lieu et l'époque de la réunion suivante.

§ 4. Chaque conférence administrative peut permettre la participation, à titre consultatif, des exploitations privées reconnues par les gouvernements contractants respectifs.

Article 19.

Changement de la date d'une conférence.

§ 1. L'époque fixée pour la réunion d'une conférence, soit de plénipotentiaires, soit administrative, peut être avancée ou reculée si la demande en est faite par dix, au moins, des gouvernements contractants, au gouvernement du pays où le Bureau de l'Union a son siège, et si cette proposition reçoit l'agrément de la majorité des gouvernements contractants qui auront fait parvenir leur avis dans le délai fixé.

§ 2. La conférence a alors lieu dans le pays primitivement désigné, si le gouvernement de ce pays y consent. Dans le cas contraire, il est procédé à une consultation des gouvernements contractants, par les soins du gouvernement du pays où le Bureau de l'Union a son siège.

(5) The amounts advanced by the government supervising the Bureau of the Union must be refunded by the debtor governments with the briefest possible delay, and, at the latest, at the end of the fourth month following the month during which the account was rendered. After this period, the amounts due shall bear interest, accruing to the creditor government, at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum, counting from the date of expiration of the above-mentioned period. Advances.

§ 4. The Bureau of the Union shall be placed under the high supervision of the Government of the Swiss Confederation which shall regulate its organization, supervise its finances, make the necessary advances; and audit the annual accounts. Bureau supervision.

CHAPTER II

CONFERENCES

Conferences.

ARTICLE 18

Conferences of Plenipotentiaries and Administrative Conferences

§ 1. The provisions of the present Convention shall be subject to revision by conferences of plenipotentiaries of the contracting governments. Plenipotentiaries and Administrative.

§ 2. Revision of the Convention shall be undertaken when it has been so decided by a preceding conference of plenipotentiaries, or when at least twenty contracting governments have so stated their desire to the government of the country in which the Bureau of the Union is located. Revision of Convention.

§ 3. The provisions of the Regulations annexed to this Convention shall be subject to revision by administrative conferences of delegates from the contracting governments which have approved the Regulations to be revised, each conference itself determining the place and time for the following meeting. Of Regulations.

§ 4. Each administrative conference may permit the participation, in an advisory capacity, of private operating agencies recognized by the respective contracting governments. Participants.

ARTICLE 19

Change of Date of a Conference

§ 1. The time set for the meeting of a conference of plenipotentiaries or of an administrative conference may be advanced or postponed if request to this effect is made by at least ten of the contracting governments to the government of the country in which the Bureau of the Union is located, and if such proposal is agreed to by the majority of the contracting governments which shall have forwarded their opinion within the time indicated. Changing conference date.

§ 2. The conference shall then be held in the country originally designated, if the government of that country consents. Otherwise, the contracting governments shall be consulted through the government of the country in which the Bureau of the Union is located.

ARTICLE 20.

Règlement intérieur des conférences.

§ 1. Avant toute autre délibération, chaque conférence établit un règlement intérieur, qui contient les règles suivant lesquelles sont organisés et conduits les débats et les travaux.

§ 2. A cet effet, la conférence prend comme base le règlement intérieur de la précédente conférence, qu'elle modifie si elle l'estime utile.

ARTICLE 21.

Langue.

§ 1. La langue employée pour la rédaction des actes des conférences et pour tous les documents de l'Union est le français.

§ 2. (1) Dans les débats des conférences, les langues française et anglaise sont admises.

(2) Les discours prononcés en français sont immédiatement traduits en anglais, et réciproquement, par des traducteurs officiels du Bureau de l'Union.

(3) En outre, d'autres langues peuvent être utilisées dans les débats des conférences, à la condition que les délégués qui les emploient pourvoient eux-mêmes à la traduction de leurs discours en français ou en anglais.

(4) De même, ces délégués peuvent, s'ils le désirent, faire traduire dans leur propre langue les discours prononcés en français ou en anglais.

CHAPITRE III.

DISPOSITIONS D'ORDRE GÉNÉRAL.

ARTICLE 22.

La télécommunication service public.

Les gouvernements contractants reconnaissent au public le droit de correspondre au moyen du service international de la correspondance publique. Le service, les taxes, les garanties seront les mêmes pour tous les expéditeurs, sans priorité ni préférence quelconques non prévues par la Convention ou les Règlements y annexés.

ARTICLE 23.

Responsabilité.

Les gouvernements contractants déclarent n'accepter aucune responsabilité à l'égard des usagers du service international de télécommunication.

ARTICLE 24.

Secret des télécommunications.

§ 1. Les gouvernements contractants s'engagent à prendre toutes les mesures possibles, compatibles avec le système de télécommunication employé, en vue d'assurer le secret des correspondances internationales.

ARTICLE 20

Internal Regulations of the Conferences

Internal regulations.

§ 1. Before any other deliberation, each conference shall establish Internal Regulations containing the rules according to which the debates and the work shall be organized and conducted.

§ 2. For this purpose, the conference shall take as a basis the Internal Regulations of the preceding conference, which it may modify if deemed advisable.
